

Harvest Home

John Dryden

Henry Purcell
Edited Alan Hollingdale

C

Voice

Your hay it is mow'd and your corn is reap'd, Your
We, ha' cheat - ed the par - son we'll cheat'im a - gen, For
For pra - ting so long like a book learn'd sot, 'till We'll toss off our ale till we can - no' stand, And

Bass

F C G7 C

Vo. ³

barns will be full and your ho - vels heaped. Come boys, come, why should a block - head have one in ten? One in ten, pud - ding and dum - pl - in burn to pot. Burn to pot,
Hoigh for the hon - our of Old Eng - land; Old Eng - land,

B.

F C G7 C

Vo. ⁶

Come, boys, come, And Mer - ri - ly roar out har - vest home. Come, boys, come,
One in ten, Why should a block-head have one in ten?
Burn to pot, 'till pud - ding and dump - lin burn to pot,
Old Eng - land, And Hoigh for the Hon'r of Old Eng - land,

B.

F C G7 C

Vo. ¹⁰

Come, boys, come, And Mer - ri - ly roar out har - vest home.

B.